

AAPG Membership

<http://students.aapg.org/>

Chevron Corporate Sponsorship Program

Chevron Corporation is the sponsor of AAPG's Corporate Sponsorship Program. Under this Program Chevron will pay the dues of any AAPG Student member if the Student member so elects. Additionally, Chevron will pay the dues of AAPG Members that serve as faculty advisors to Active AAPG Student Chapters.

- I am a Student:
 - I'd like to join as a student member
 - Please renew my student membership.

New membership

- make a new account
- update your personal profile – need to click “update profile”
- click the “New Applications” tab at the top of the page
 - select “AAPG Online Membership Application Process for Student Level (Chevron Sponsorship) → you must click this link if you want the membership to be free
 - You will then need to fill in all of the required information
 - They will ask for you to submit a supporting document → here you need to attach an unofficial transcript (you can get one under “academics → documents → web academic report” from the Student Center website (student.uwo.ca)
- You will get an email back to say that your application has been submitted, and once your application has been processed, another email stating your new membership number.

To renew

- select the “Online Request Form” link from the sidebar on the right
- Fill in all of the information, and make sure to click the box that says “Yes, I wish to have Chevron pay my AAPG dues”
- Click submit at the bottom of the page

Once you get an email back stating your application has been accepted (your new AAPG membership number is stated at the top) or that your membership has been renewed, please send us your AAPG membership number.

CSPG Membership

<http://www.cspg.org/>

CSPG website – students tab – free student membership

- Fill in all of the required information, then click submit
- Student membership should expire 1 month after your graduation date